

Free Elearning Resource

For family carers of young people (age 5 to 18) with autism

Dear Reader,

Please find enclosed an information leaflet regarding our new elearning project, Positive Pathways Scotland. This elearning resource is free to access, and has been funded by the Scottish Government's Autism Development Fund.

We would be very grateful if you can display this flyer or/and distribute the enclosed flyer to promote awareness of this resource. Our audience is family carers of children (aged 5 to 18 years) and their families. (This may be parents, grandparents, carers, foster carers etc.)

Please feel free to contact Laura Andrew, Positive Pathways Scotland coordinator on t: 0845 013 6365 or alternatively by email at pps@trfs.org.uk if you require more flyers to be mailed or would like to discuss the resource further.

Thank you very much for your support.

Kind regards,

Laura Andrew
Positive Pathways Scotland

FREE E-LEARNING COURSE

Who's it for?

Parents and Carers of children and young people with autism (age 5 to 18)

What's it about?

The training will focus on understanding social, emotional & behavioural challenges through a free e-learning course.

What's on offer?

- An introduction for parents and carers to Positive Behaviour Support (PBS)
- Case studies to demonstrate what Positive Behaviour Support (PBS) looks like for a young person
- Easy to use tools and a resource file
- Planned forums for question and answer sessions

Interested?

Register at: www.positivepathways.scot

For more information find us on Facebook: 'Positive Pathways Scotland'

Or email: pps@trfs.org.uk

Funded by: